

I appreciate this opportunity to express support for interactivity of all VRS systems. It will not only give us (deaf community) more flexibility and equality in telecommunications, but will also make it easier for us to function within a hearing environment by giving us faster access to the persons we wish to contact. It is extremely important for emergency purposes as well. Current relay and VRS system restrictions make emergency calling very difficult and/or time consuming.